The student has covered the following points perfectly and as per expectation:
Romanticism was a European cultural movement aimed at developing national unity by creating a sense of shared heritage and common history. The strength of art in promoting nationalism is well exemplified in the role played by European poets and artists in mobilising public opinion to support the Greeks in their struggle to establish their national identity.
The Romantic artists' emphasis on emotions, intuition and mystical feelings gave shape and expression to nationalist sentiments. Language also played a distinctive role in developing nationalist feelings in Europe.
During this period, Polish language was forced out of schools and Russian language was imposed everywhere. They did so by refusing to preach in Russian, and by using Polish for Church gatherings and religious instruction.
